Editorial

As RMR Administration has changed the frequency of IMSTS from bimonthly to monthly on an advice of Research & Innovation Division of Higher Education Commission via hjrs@hec.gov.pk; you are reading now the April edition where you have to again find unique and exclusive research papers.

Let me highlight the significance of the papers;

Here, you will read about the strategic panorama of South-Central Asia within the context of Pakistan's membership in SCO. Likewise, you will know about the concept of United Armenia. At the same time, you will come to know about various proposals regarding the integration of Afghanistan, Iran and Pakistan. Next, you will understand the concept of an ideal society by analyzing the work of Ishfaq Ahmad. Furthermore, you will know how Ahmed Nadeem Qasmi is considered a progressive writer. And lastly, you will understand the work of Edward Lucas on Putin's psychological warfare in Ukraine and Syria.
